

Free Sites to Play English Practice Games

Jeopardy Labs

This site allows you to find pre-made Jeopardy games to practice just about anything. You can also make your own games. Be aware, games are not checked by anyone, so some may have mistakes. Use the search box to search for the vocabulary or grammar topic you want to practice.

MES Games

These games are geared more towards children, but there are a lot of different vocabulary and basic grammar topics to choose from.

Educa Play

With thousands of different topics and activities, this site is great for older learners. The best way to find what you're looking for is to use the search box and enter the vocabulary or grammar topic.

English Club

Organized into sections for grammar, vocabulary, spelling, and pronunciation, this site has several different types of games. There is a fair amount of clicking to get to the activities, but they are made for older learners. There are a fair number of ads.

Review Game Zone

This site is one of the more difficult ones to navigate. The best option is to use the search box in order to look for a specific skill. The games are older in style and not as flashy as some other sites.

ESL Games+

This site is definitely made with children in mind. It has quite a few games to practice beginning vocabulary and basic grammar topics.

Quizlet

Most known for digital flashcarding and vocabulary practice, Quizlet allows you to make your own vocabulary sets or use public sets created by others. You can use the site to flashcard, but there are other practice games as well.
